Silverbirch Privacy Policy – 1ST FEBRUARY 2023

Why we hold and process information

This notice sets out how we hold and process information we hold about you. We process personal information about our tenants and possible new tenants and landlords so we can provide residential accommodation and services.

This includes:

- dealing with lettings;
- dealing with applications for tenancies;
- checking suitability for tenancies (including credit, immigration and similar checks);
- managing property;
- collecting rent;
- maintaining our accounts and records; and
- dealing with tenancy deposits.

Relevant information may include personal details, employment and education details and financial details.

By law, we have to carry out immigration checks on new tenants and residents. We have to keep copies of the documents we inspect as part of these checks. We may keep these secure in hardcopy files, online software and computers.

Sharing Information with others

We may need to share personal information we process with others. If we have to do this, we will keep to data-protection legislation.

As a company we are registered with the ICO (Information Commissioners Office) and comply accordingly. Reference number ZA239040.

Depending on the circumstances, we may share information:

- with other landlords;
- employers;
- educational institutions, universities and colleges;
- suppliers (including gas, electricity and water companies) and service suppliers;
- financial organisations (including banks);
- credit- and tenant reference agencies;
- tenancy deposit schemes;
- debt-collection and tracing agencies;
- public and government bodies (including those who deal with benefits and council tax);
- contractors and repairers;
- letting and managing agents; and
- any future owner of the property.
